ABOUT THE ARTIST

VIRTUOSITY. DISCOVERY. POET AT THE PIANO.

Nareh Arghamanyan is an Austrian pianist of Armenian heritage. Her artistry combines virtuosity with poetic imagination and a curiosity for discovery. Since winning First Prize at the 2008 Montreal International Musical Competition, she has appeared on major international stages and performed with orchestras including the Vienna Symphony, Leipzig Gewandhaus and Rundfunk-Sinfonie-Orchester Berlin. She has worked with many leading conductors, including Kent Nagano and Alain Altinoglu.

Her recordings have been released by Pentatone, Sony Classical, Hänssler Classic and Analekta. In 2026, she was nominated for the OPUS KLASSIK "Instrumentalist of the Year" award.

Alongside the central repertoire, Nareh is recognised for programmes that rediscover the Golden Age of Pianism, overlooked composers, and forgotten works. Her Armenian heritage remains an important source of artistic identity and inspiration.

In Vienna Nareh curates her own Piano Recital Series at Haus der Ingenieure – Soiree mit Nareh

"Her virtuosity is never an end in itself, but always entirely in the service of the music."
